Terms and Conditions

Dates are approved on a first come first served basis and no visit is agreed until you are in receipt of a confirmation email. Although we will try our best to accommodate according to your preferred dates, we will sometimes need to suggest alternate dates if we are fully booked.

If, due to unforeseen circumstances, we have to re-arrange or cancel your tour, we will let you know as soon as possible.

As a religious institution and place of worship, both male and female visitors are requested to observe the following dress code: Please do not wear see-through, skin-tight, revealing clothing or clothing with profanities or other controversial images or words. Dresses, skirts and shorts should be below the knee. For females - Arms should be covered, and it is preferable for heads to be covered with a scarf (these can be provided upon request). All visitors will be requested to remove their shoes upon entering the masjid

We allow photography of the building but not of worshippers without their permission.

Please be aware that members of staff and volunteers do not make physical contact with guests of the opposite gender, by way of shaking hands. This will be explained as part of the tour when appropriate.

The information you enter into this form will be collected and stored by London Colney Islamic Centre.

We will always store your personal details securely. We'll use them to provide the service that you have requested, and communicate with you in the way(s) that you have agreed to. Your data may also be used for analysis purposes, to help us provide the best service possible.
